

International Education Week online programs 15.-19.11

Next week is International Education Week in the U.S. and the U.S. Embassy Tallinn is hosting a series of virtual events to help students (and teachers, as advisers) navigate the application process at American universities. We would greatly appreciate it if you shared the below schedule with your network of students and fellow-teachers.

Monday November 15 @ 4:00PM - Researching U.S. Universities and Preparing your Application

- With thousands of colleges and universities to choose from, the United States has unmatched opportunities for students. Public Affairs Officer Mark Naylor and Public Diplomacy Officer Miquela Burke will give an overview about how to find a university that fits your needs and the best way to prepare your application.

Tuesday November 16 @ 5:00PM - Discover Student Life in U.S. Universities (In collaboration with EducationUSA)

- College life is very different from high school life. It can be a lot more fun, but it is also more demanding. During the webinar, we are going to talk about the student life in U.S. universities to help participants to enjoy their college experience as much as possible. The presenters: Samantha Redfern, Taylor Esposito and Olivia LeBlanc have just graduated the colleges in U.S. and right now, they are English teaching assistants in Estonia. The webinar will be opened by Kyle Hartwell, Assistant Public Affairs Officer in U.S. Embassy Tallinn.
